STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provisions) Act, 1985 was enacted with a view to securing timely detection of sick and potentially sick industrial companies. Accordingly, the Board for Industrial and Financial Reconstruction (BIFR) was constituted and vested with powers for speedy determination of preventive ameliorative, remedial and other measures which need to be taken with respect to such companies. An Appellate Authority for Industrial and Financial Reconstruction (AAIFR) was also constituted.

2. Several issues have arisen in relation to different provisions of the Act and the manner in which these provisions have facilitated the rehabilitation or the winding up of sick industrial companies. Based on a consideration of these issues, a need has been felt to make certain amendments to the Act in order to quicken the process of revival of sick industrial companies and facilitate the smooth working of BIFR.

3. The main features of the amendments proposed in the Bill are—

- (a) jurisdictional amendments which redefine the category of the companies coming within the purview of the Act, and the options which are available for revival, rehabilitation or winding up of sick industrial companies;
- (b) amendments to enhance the effectiveness of BIFR;
- (c) amendments which seek to remove certain ambiguities and strengthen internal coherence of the Act by redefining certain provisions which are clarificatory in nature.

4. The Bill seeks to achieve the aforesaid objects.
